

Fifth Annual AddRan Festival of Undergraduate Scholarship and Creativity

Awards

Papers Recommended to the TCU Journal of Undergraduate Research:

Josh Coad, "Destined To Do This Forever: The Joker and Iago"

Chelsea Smith, "Relative Success: Male and Female Indian School Graduates' Attempts to Assimilate in the Writings of Zitkala-Sa"

Schylene Reetz, "Understanding and Stopping the Persistent Spread of HIV in KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa"

AddRan Essay Contest:

$250 Josh Coad, "Destined To Do This Forever: The Joker and Iago"

$250 Schylene Reetz, "Understanding and Stopping he Persistent Spread of HIV in KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa"

$50 Chelsea Smith, "Relative Success: Male and Female Indian School Graduates' Attempts to Assimilate in the Writings of Zitkala-Sa"

$50 Nile Elam "US-Japan Postwar Trade Policies with Emphasis on the Automobile Industry"

People's Choice Awards (posters and video voted best by Festival visitors):

$100 "Recycling Initiative at TCU (Briana Saldana, Zvonko Buljan, Zoe' Hampton, Nicole Garrison, and Maddi Masino)

$100 "Shoes for All" (Neidra Covington)

$100 "With Open Eyes" (Caroline Harrison and Gabi Sztamenits)

$100 Recycle a Cell Phone to Help Save a Gorilla (Amanda McWhorter)

Chairs' Choice Awards (oral presentations randomly selected as chair favorites):

- $100 Grace Palmer, "Epideictic Rhetoric in the Victorian Era: King Solomon's Mines"
- $100 Jennifer Ferguson, "I'd Rather Live Next Door to a Mafia Hitman: Judicial Perceptions of Sexual Offenders"
- $100 Ashley Offill, "Reconnaissance in the Renaissance: Shakespeare's Hamlet and the Advent of Courtly Spying"

Judges' Awards—Oral Presentations ($100 each):

- $100 Traci Clayton, "From Austerity to Prosperity: The Challenge that Consumerism Posed to Women's Roles in Franco's Spain"
- $100 Emy Kapiamba, "A Look into the Writing Environment at Lockheed Martin"
- $100 Aaron Ginn, "Being Yourself Was Never So Easy: Pre-Economics and Value-Centric Theory"
- $100 Merrilat Pittman, "Religious Freedom in the People's Republic of China: Factors in the Government's Response to Christian Congregations"
- $100 Wendy Bowman, "Flatterland"
- $100 Chelsea Smith, "Relative Success: Male and Female Indian School Graduates' Attempts to Assimilate in the Writings of Zitkala-Sa"
- $100 Michael Dabbs, "Redefining Silence: A Study of Alterity and the Authentic Act"

Judges' Awards—Posters and Video ($100 each):

- $100 "Operation Green Frog," Tom Adams, Emily Koetting, Arun Saha Ray, Greg Snow, and Evan Vaughan
- $100 "TCU Horned Frogs' Sustainability Awareness Campaign," Jaime Chase, Taylor Fulk, Rena Hughes, Marci Milhoulin, and Jessica Rodriguez
- $100 "'Eco-Share' Campus Community," Ann Lowrensu Hewage
- $100 "The Effects of Ethnicity and Gender on Family Planning in Guatemala," Laura DeMoss
- $100 "Urban Stream Restoration: The Worth Hills Watershed and TCU," Gretchen Wilbrandt

Asian Studies Award Winner:

Madeline Davis, "Changing Chinese Chains: Gender Inequity in the Chinese Nationalist and Communist Parties"

Economics Department Award (Co-Winners):

Aaron Ginn, "Being Yourself Was Never So Easy: Pre-Economics and Value-Centric Theory,"

Jonathan Subash, "Going Postal: The Economic Performance of Postal Services in Eastern Europe"

Priscilla Tate Award (Women's Studies):

Traci Clayton, "From Austerity to Prosperity: The Challenge that Consumerism Posed to Women's Roles in Franco's Spain"